v.

LEXIS NEXIS LEGAL DEPT
Defendant.

Civil Action 3-16-cv-02460
Appeal NO. 17-3587

MOTION TO SEAL OR AMANDE CIVIL CASE 3-16-cv-02460

NOW COME, Plaintiff Pro Se civil action by Ronald West, a federal a federal prisoner, against the United States, brought pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act ("FTCA"). On August 23, 2017. At this time, I the Plaintiff ask the Court and Lexis Nexis, to Seal or Amand the case above for personal safety within the ("BOP") while in Federal Custody.

Conditions of Confinement

Plaintiff ask the Court and Lexis Nexis to Seal or Amend the case on the computer for conditions of confinement, security and safety reason under the condition of imprioson. Inmates are "pulling the case from the computer and puting it out on the compound within FCI-Hazelton". Plaintiff's background was under the radar, until 2015, thats when S.I.S release the information to inmates on the compound in FCI-Allenwood PA. Superior Court of the District of Columbia, did not put any information out about plaintiff's background when he was sentence back in 1989. Thats why plaintiff was under the radar for so long without anyone knowing about his history or background within the Bureau of Prisons.

Argument

Considering the issue on the complaint and the time Plaintiff will confine in prison. The information on his background should be under seal for security and safety of the institution, plaintiff is in, with no problems from inmates or Staff within the Bureau of Prisons. Then officials in FCI-Allenwood Pa, violated plaintiff's right to protection when he was released form ("SHU") under order from the Staff in 2015. Plaintiff, asked for protection when he was housed in FCI-Allenwood Pa, when he was in the ("SHU") doing the time, when he written up on a bogus incident report by Staff.

Declaration

I Ronald Blue West, declare under the statutes of perjury, in accordance with the statutes of Title 28 USCA § 1746, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge by signing name. I make this a legal and binding document under the Law to grant West's Motion to Seal or Amend his civil action against the United States of America, on the Lexis Nexis, for safety and security reason in the Bureau of Prison.
